

Chief Financial Officer Christopher Laurent to leave MicroVest

Bethesda, December 4, 2015 – MicroVest Capital Management today announced that Christopher Laurent, Chief Financial Officer, has resigned to pursue a career opportunity in the United Kingdom.

“Chris joined us in 2007 and has held a number of key positions on the investment, business development and finance sides of the company. We greatly appreciate Chris's contribution and wish him all the best in this new opportunity,” says Gil Crawford, CEO of MicroVest Capital Management, LLC.

Kurt Koschnitzke, Manager of MicroVest GMG Capital Management, LLC (a joint-venture affiliate of MicroVest), will serve as interim Chief Financial Officer as the company conducts a search for a new CFO.

Mr. Laurent will take on the CFO position with a major fund in the microfinance space. MicroVest's next CFO will build on Mr. Laurent's successful work in designing and maintaining MicroVest's Finance and Accounting functions and processes.

About MicroVest Capital Management, LLC

MicroVest is an asset management firm that offers global investment opportunities across its family of funds. MicroVest invests capital in under-banked markets, providing access to a growing portfolio of sustainable financial institutions. MicroVest's emphasis on a detailed due diligence process and focus on aligning values can result in meaningful financial returns for its investors. Since 2003 MicroVest has demonstrated that investing in its funds can be both profitable and purposeful. As of September 2015, MicroVest managed $384 million across all its funds.

###

Media contact

Thomas Hofer
+1-240-380-1031
thofer@microvestfund.com