

John Beckham to join MicroVest as Chief of Strategy

June 15, 2016, Bethesda, MD – MicroVest Capital Management today announced that John Beckham is joining the senior management team as the new Chief of Strategy, effective immediately. John comes to MicroVest from the Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC), the private sector arm of the Inter-American Development Bank, where he held the position of Managing Director for Clients.

"I am incredibly excited to welcome John to MicroVest where I know his years of expertise will enhance our rapidly growing team and company. John will focus on strategy and corporate development and work closely with the senior management team as we enter our next growth phase," says Gil Crawford, CEO of MicroVest Capital Management, LLC.

In this context he will lead the company's efforts to create the foundation for MicroVest to grow assets under management while profitably investing in under-banked markets. As the Managing Director for Clients at the IIC, he led the investment teams in charge of all new lending and equity operations for projects, financial institutions, corporate clients, and SMEs. In this position, he also led the development and delivery of the IIC's knowledge products and advisory services in collaboration with public and private partners. John has a BA from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from The Ohio State University. He has lived in Argentina, Brazil, and Mexico and is fluent in Spanish and Portuguese.
