

MicroVest Capital Management announces new General Counsel

Bethesda, MD - Effective August 1, 2017 MicroVest Capital Management welcomes a new General Counsel, Monika Scherer. Ms. Scherer joins MicroVest this summer after eleven years at the Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC), a member of the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB). Prior to her time at the IIC Ms. Scherer was employed by Baker McKenzie, first in Caracas, Venezuela and then in Washington, DC. Ms. Scherer executed transactional work and supported corporate matters such as governance, compliance and human resources.

“Ms. Scherer brings a diverse set of valuable skills and experiences to our legal team which will add significant value to our investment process. Combined with her corporate experience, we believe this makes her a well-rounded candidate and we are pleased to have her on board.” says Gil Crawford, CEO of MicroVest Capital Management, LLC.
